Harford County Government to Open Thursday

(Bel Air, MD) - - Harford County Executive David R. Craig has announced that Harford County Government will re-open on Thursday, November 1, 2012. Liberal leave will be in effect for county employees.

"We appreciate the patience and understanding of our citizens and employees during the past few days while county government was closed as a result of Hurricane Sandy," said County Executive Craig. "Our focus has been the restoration and recovery of Harford County following the impact Hurricane Sandy made on our community," Craig remarked.

The Executive Order from the County Executive – "Declaration of State of Emergency Due to Hurricane Sandy" will be lifted Wednesday, October 31, 2012 at 5:00 p.m.
